MATH

This week, we are talking about equal parts of squares and reviewing our math to get ready for grade 1!

Also math related, we are in the FINAL COUNTDOWN! We have 14 days left of school.
Every day, we will reveal a special event that we will do to make every last day count.

SHOW & TELL

For show and tell this week, wear your pajamas and bring in a favorite summer toy or bedtime lovey. :)

BIBLE

This week we will learn about Lydia. I think it's especially awesome when women are highlighted in our bible lessons.
This week, we will learn how Lydia and many other followers helped to spread the word about the love of Jesus and what He did for everyone. He died on the cross, but He didn't stay dead, He conquered death and sin and Satan and we have victory in Him.
