Contact: acole@mightymessengers.org

Hello, and welcome to week two!

Important to Note:

- No School Friday, September 4th & Monday, September 7th. – Happy Labor Day!

6th - 8th Grade ELA :

Across all ELA classes this week, we will be drafting our first paper, using the outline we created last week. In doing so, we will refine key ideas, offer in-depth explanations, and focus on aspects such as sensory details, clarity, and form. Next week, students will finish this project through careful self and peer editing.

Please note: Spelling tests for 6th and 7th grade and a vocabulary test for 8th grade will take place Wednesday, September 2nd, covering Unit One words #1-10, and Wednesday, September 9th, covering Unit One words #11-20. Such tests will take place every Wednesday, unless otherwise specified, covering 10 words per week. Please encourage your student to study accordingly.

7th Grade History:

7th Grade history students will dive into early European, Spanish, French, and Dutch settlers this week as we continue into our Early America unit. In your children's textbook, this is Unit Two, Lesson Two. At the conclusion of week two, we will have completed both lessons one and two in this unit. Please encourage your student to stay fresh on this knowledge, as there will be a cumulative test following lesson three.

Please do not hesitate to reach out!
