4 A Note About History Tests

History Tests were passed back today. Before passing them back we spent time talking about the essays 8th graders wrote. Overall I was impressed with content of their writing, but we definitely have things to work on improving!

Please take a moment this weekend to ask your student what they learned about how to improve on their work for the next essay.

5 Weekly Behavior Focus

Each week the entire school is focusing on a behavior for students to work on improving.

This week's behavior was:

Get supplies without distraction

"Pick-up your supplies, not time to waste, get back to your chair with careful haste."

Next week's behavior is:

Keep hands and body to yourself

"Where do my hands stay? With me, ALL DAY!"
